

Family gives me hope ❤️

And thank you !! 🙏

“This is my hope: my family and being able

Did Spring Cleaning last weekend. Comfortable, clean home inspires us a lot!

This is a message that was written on a window at work (Newton Wellesley Hospital). There's never been a phrase that fits so perfectly now, like it did then... when I lived at Family Promise. We're all tougher than we think and we learn that at times like these. I didn't forget! 😊

This is our hope.

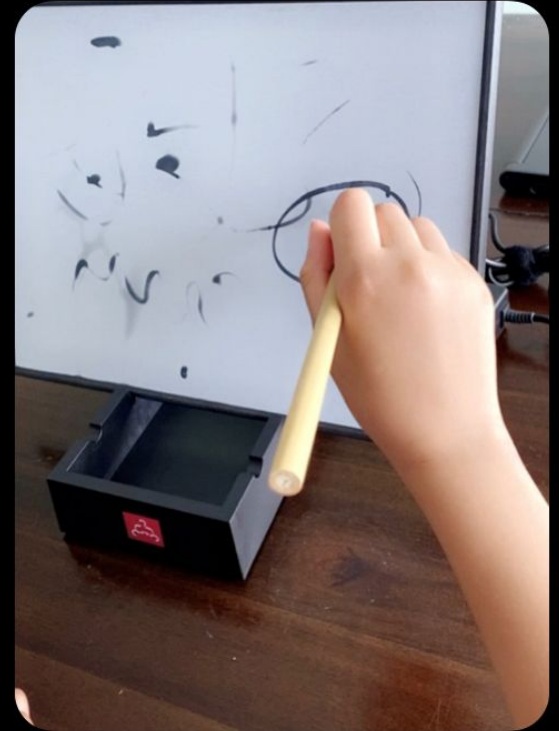

So we like to do all types of art so the last three weekends we've done all kinds of art. That's something that keeps us at peace and it's a great distraction. So I'll send you some of what we've done

Three weekends ago we did collages
Two weekends ago we did canvas painting

Last weekend we did sketching and self portraits my daughter did amazing

Today she just got a calligraphy board so she's doodling on that
